CHAPTER 3

INFORMATION ON CONDUCTING ELECTRONIC TRADING

3.1. Placement of information on conducting electronic trading

Not later than the next working day after the publication of the printed media in which the notice on the conduct of electronic trading is published (hereinafter referred to as the notice), information on conducting electronic trading is posted by the organizer of electronic trading via the ETP toolkit.

After publishing this information, electronic trading is assigned a registration number.

3.2. Content of information on conducting electronic trading

3.2.1. When posting information on conducting electronic trading, the organizer of electronic trading, in addition to the information specified in the Regulations, must indicate:

persons admitted in accordance with the legislation to participate in electronic trading for the sale of a specific subject of electronic trading;

the amount of the fine paid by the winner of electronic trading (bidder), in case of his refusal or evasion from reimbursement of the costs of organizing and conducting electronic trading and (or) signing an agreement drawn up according to the results of electronic trading;

the current (corporate) bank account to which the fine paid by the winner of electronic trading (bidder) in the cases provided by law and the name of the payee is transferred.

3.2.2. The organizer of electronic trading is given the opportunity to post photos of the subject of electronic trading, copies of documents on the rights to the subject of electronic trading, plans, as well as other additional information. Viewing documents in non-legible form, placed and generated on the ETP, is carried out using software tools that allow for the viewing of document file formats, mainly pdf, doc (docx, xls (xlsx), jpg, bmp, gif, png, wbmp.

3.2.3. Electronic trading is not appointed by the organizer of electronic trading on weekends, public holidays and holidays established and declared non-working in accordance with the legislation of the Republic of Belarus.

The start time of electronic trading is set by ETP toolkit in automatic mode between the times 10-00 and 16-00.

3.2.4. The ETP operator accepts applications for participation in electronic trading with the attached documents within the period specified by the organizer of the electronic trading, but no later than 15.00 of working time.

3.2.5. When conducting repeated electronic trading, the electronic trading organizer is given the opportunity to post information on the conduct of such electronic trading, taking into account the information previously submitted to it.

3.3. Introduction of changes and (or) additions to information on conducting electronic trading

Before the deadline for accepting applications for participation in electronic trading, the organizer of electronic trading with the aim of correcting technical and (or) arithmetic errors has the opportunity to make changes and (or) additions to information on conducting electronic trading, which will not lead to significant change. If the electronic trading organizer makes such changes and (or) additions to the information on conducting electronic trading in the personal sections, as well as to the email addresses of the participants, the ETP operator sends the corresponding notifications.

3.4. Refusal to conduct electronic trading

3.4.1. In the case of refusal to conduct electronic trading, the organizer of electronic trading places information on such a refusal on the ETP, and the corresponding notifications are sent to the personal sections of the participants, as well as their email addresses.

Information on the refusal to conduct electronic trading should contain the name of the printed media in which the refusal to conduct electronic trading is posted, its issue date and the number.

3.4.2. Within five workdays from the date of placement of information by the organizer of electronic trading on the ETP on the refusal to conduct electronic trading, the ETP operator returns the deposit to all participants.

CHAPTER 4

PAYMENT FOR THE SERVICES OF THE ETP OPERATOR

4.1. Payment procedure and cost of the ETP operator service

4.1.1. The service for placing on the ETP information on conducting electronic trading (hereinafter – the service) is paid by the organizers of electronic trading in accordance with the agreement concluded with the ETP operator.

4.1.2. The cost of the ETP operator service is set in the price list, which is placed in the public domain on the ETP.

The change in the cost of the service is carried out by the ETP operator unilaterally. Information about changes in the cost of services is posted on the ETP in the public domain.

CHAPTER 5

DOCUMENTS FOR PARTICIPATION IN ELECTRONIC TRADING

5.1. Submission of documents for participation in electronic trading

5.1.1. No later than the date and time of the deadline for accepting applications for participation in electronic trading specified in the information on conducting electronic trading, the participant:

submits an electronic application for participation in electronic trading via the ETP toolkit;

forms the following documents via the ETP toolkit:

- agreement in the form in accordance with Annex 4 to these Rules;
- application for familiarization with the subject of electronic trading (if the mandatory submission of such a statement is established by the organizer of electronic trading) in the form in accordance with Annex 5 to these Rules;
- application for participation in electronic trading in the form in accordance with Annex 6 to these Rules;

pays the amount of the deposit to the current (corporate) bank account of the ETP operator specified in the notice. When paying the amount of the deposit in the column “Purpose of Payment” of the payment document, the participant indicates the registration number of electronic trading and the electronic application number assigned by the ETP toolkit.

The participant prints out the documents specified in paragraphs four and six of part one of this sub-paragraph, supplements them with missing information, signs with the authorized person (the agreement is signed in two copies) and seals the signature (if available). The participant submits the specified documents to the ETP operator, attaching to them the original document

* For the purpose of timely incoming by the ETP operator of the deposit made by non-resident participants of the Republic of Belarus, it is recommended that such persons make the deposit to the ETP operator no later than two workdays before the deadline for submitting applications for participation in electronic trading confirming the payment of the deposit, marked by the bank.

From January 1, 2017, the acceptance of documents for participation in electronic trading is carried out at the central office of the Belarusian Universal Commodity Exchange OJSC in Minsk and at the location of the regional branches of the Belarusian Universal Commodity Exchange OJSC.

5.1.2. An applicant who has submitted an application form for accreditation on the ETP as a participant shall have the right to perform the actions specified in sub-paragraph 5.1.1 of this paragraph no later than two workdays before the deadline for accepting applications for participation in electronic trading. In this case, the application with the documents attached to it will be considered submitted on the day of accreditation of such person on the ETP.

5.2. Registration of applications for participation in electronic trading

5.2.1. The decision on registration or refusal to register an application for participation in electronic trading is made by the ETP operator within two workdays from the date of submission of such an application with the documents attached to it.

The grounds for refusal to register an application are:

non-submission of the documents specified in paragraphs four to six of part one of sub-paragraph 5.1.1 of paragraph 5.1 of these Rules;

submission of documents that do not meet the requirements for their execution, specified in part two of sub-paragraph 5.1.1 of paragraph 5.1 of these Rules.

5.2.2. On the day of the decision to register or refuse to register an application for participation in electronic trading, a corresponding notification is sent to the personal section of the participant, as well as to the email address. In the case of refusal of registration, the notification shall indicate the reason for refusal.

5.2.3. When registering an application for participation in electronic trading, the ETP operator signs an agreement with the participant, after which one copy of the agreement is issued to the participant or sent to him by mail.

5.3. Withdrawal of the application for participation in electronic trading

The participant has the right to withdraw its application for participation in electronic trading via the ETP toolkit and (or) in writing before the start of electronic trading.

In the case of a participant withdrawing such an application, the amount of the paid deposit is returned to the participant within five business days from the date of the electronic trading.

CHAPTER 6

PREPARATION AND CONDUCT OF ELECTRONIC TRADING

6.1. The amount of costs for organizing and conducting electronic trading

The information on the conduct of electronic trading shall indicate the amount of costs for organizing and conducting electronic trading, which may be adjusted by the electronic trading organizer before the electronic registration of participants begins.

6.2. Electronic registration

6.2.1. Prior to the start of the electronic trading, participants pass through electronic registration. Electronic registration is also mandatory in the case of submitting an application for participation in electronic trading only by one participant.

The participants whose deposits are received on the current (corporate) bank account of the ETP operator are admitted to electronic registration.

6.2.2. Participants at the ETP are electronically registered using the ETP toolkit on the day of the electronic trading prior to its commencement.

When passing electronic registration, the participant becomes familiar with the amount of costs for organizing and conducting electronic trading, with the electronic trading step, except for the first step.

Participants who passed electronic registration are assigned serial numbers. Participants who have not passed the electronic registration on the ETP, do not participate in electronic trading.

6.2.3. In the case of failure of the participant to pass electronic registration, the amount of the deposit is returned to such participant within five workdays from the date of the electronic trading.

6.3. Electronic trading procedure

6.3.1. Electronic trading is held on the ETP on the day specified in the notice, and the time determined in accordance with part two of sub-paragraph 3.2.3 of paragraph 3.2 of these Rules.

6.3.2. The electronic trading organizer is given the opportunity to monitor the electronic trading process using the ETP toolkit.

6.3.3. Since the start of electronic trading on the ETP, for each subject of electronic trading are placed:

information on the start time of electronic trading with the name of the subject of electronic trading;

information on the initial price of the subject of electronic trading;

information on the number of electronic trading participants who have been electronically registered;

offers on the price of the subject of electronic trading with an indication of the time of its receipt and the numbers of participants who have made these offers;

the time remaining until the end of the submission of offers for the price of the subject of electronic trading.

6.3.4. In the procedure of electronic trading, electronic trading participants make offers by successively increasing the initial price of the subject of electronic trading by an amount equal to the step size of electronic trading. The size of the first step is five percent of the initial price of the subject of electronic trading. The electronic trading step, with the exception of the first step, is set by the electronic trading organizer at a fixed amount from five to fifteen percent of the initial price of the electronic trading item, and does not change during the electronic trading time.

6.3.5. Within ten minutes from the start of electronic trading, electronic trading participants are invited to make an offer to purchase the subject of electronic trading at an initial price increased by the value of the first step of electronic trading.

If, within the specified time, an offer is made to purchase the electronic trading subject at the initial price of the electronic trading subject, increased by the value of the first electronic trading step, then the time for making the following offers for the electronic trading subject increased by the electronic trading step is extended by ten minutes from the time indicated and each following offer.

6.3.6. Electronic trading is completed if within ten minutes after:

the start of electronic trading no offers were made to purchase the subject of electronic trading at the initial price of the subject of electronic trading increased by the value of the first step of electronic trading;

making another offer on the price of the electronic trading subject the following offer is not made.

6.3.7. If two or more participants of electronic trading make the same offers on the price of the electronic trading subject, the ETP toolkit takes into account only the offer of the participant made earlier than the others.

6.3.8. An electronic trading participant is given the opportunity to use the Stop Order function, which allows participants to make offers on the price of the electronic trading subject automatically until the maximum price value set by such participant is reached.

6.3.9. If the application is submitted only by one electronic trading participant or electronic registration on the ETP has been passed only by one of the participants, the subject of electronic trading is sold to that participant with his consent to purchase the subject of electronic trading at an initial price increased by five percent.

The bidder confirms the consent to purchase the subject of electronic trading at the initial price increased by five percent by making an offer to purchase the subject of electronic trading at the initial price of the subject of electronic trading increased by the value of the first step of electronic trading within ten minutes from the start of trading.

The absence of an offer to purchase an electronic trading subject at the initial price increased by the value of the first step of electronic trading from an electronic trading participant specified in part one of this sub-paragraph is recognized as a refusal to purchase an electronic trading subject within ten minutes from the start of electronic trading.

6.4. Abnormal situations

6.4.1. In case of circumstances leading to the impossibility of conducting electronic trading, the ETP operator suspends electronic trading.

In concert with the organizer of electronic trading, the ETP operator establishes the date and time of the resumption of electronic trading and notifies the participants who have passed the electronic registration.

Electronic trading is resumed taking into account offers for the purchase of the subject of electronic trading made by electronic trading participants until the circumstances specified in part one of this sub-paragraph occur.

6.4.2. If during electronic trading, the participant finds it impossible for technical reasons to participate in electronic trading or make another offer, such participant shall immediately inform the ETP operator by calling 8(017) 309-32-38, 309-32-49 or by e-mail (e-mail: et@butb.by) for receiving recommendations on the elimination of the problem.

6.5. Results of electronic trading

6.5.1. After completion of electronic trading on the ETP, the following information is placed in the public domain:

- date and time of completion of electronic trading;
- name of the subject of electronic trading and its location;
- the initial price of the subject of electronic trading;
- selling price of the subject of electronic trading;
- number of the winner of electronic trading (bidder).

6.5.7. Within five workdays from the day of electronic trading, the ETP operator:

returns the deposit to all the participants of electronic trading, except for the winner of electronic trading (bidder);

transfers the deposit of the winner of electronic trading (bidder) to the current (corporate) bank account specified by the electronic trading organizer in the information on conducting electronic trading.

CHAPTER 7

FORCE MAJEURE

7.1.1. The operator of the ETP is not responsible for the complete or partial non-fulfillment of its obligations to ensure the operation of the ETP, if such non-fulfillment was the result of extreme and unavoidable force majeure circumstances, in particular, natural phenomena (earthquakes, fires, floods and other natural calamities), social phenomena (military actions, civil disorder, epidemics), or the entry into force of regulatory prohibiting acts.

7.1.2. The ETP operator shall inform all interested parties of the occurrence of force majeure circumstances, their expected duration and termination by placing an announcement on the ETP.
